“It will only get worse”: Trucker protests hurt auto plants across North America

NBC News

News

Hi Chrystia , i hope you are well ...I know you have your hands full and I’m not saying anything you prob don’t know ..but this is really impacting us badly now like many others , and I fear , that even worse , the long term consequences of shutting down auto plants because of lack of canadian parts , will only convince the auto companies to “ on shore “ even more and relocate supplies (and our
